

Ericsson/Emerson Energy Systems

(Ericsson business unit Ericsson Energy Systems, sold to Emerson in 2000)

Product Manager Energy Management and Services – responsible for monitoring solutions on the North Americas market including USA, Canada, Mexico, and the Caribbean.

Working closely with Sales and Operations in marketing, sales, implementation, and support efforts.

Worldwide responsible for EMAS-R1, Energy Systems top-of-the-line monitoring solution. Part of the Emerson EnergyMaster™ (EEM) product family.

EMAS-R1, Energy Management Application Software – Release 1:

Advanced monitoring and control of telecom energy equipment. HP-UX UNIX workstations, HP OpenView...

Co-wrote and presented paper at Intelc '98 (San Francisco):
Integrate Internet Solutions Into Your Energy Management Network

EEM DCiD – initiated idea, planned, developed and documented processes, business case, got funded, started, managed, hired personnel, and eventually shutdown EEM Design Center in Dallas – outsourced development center,

Initiated and maintained one very popular intranet web site, EEM North Americas (EEM NA):

EEM North America – Intranet only

- Business development for EES
- Business cases, quotes to customers
- Marketing material
- Active in working groups, etc:
 - MC Technical Task Force (EES)
 - New Power Forum (EES)
 - TIE1.5 – standardization of monitoring framework (2000-)
- Product support, advanced level

Roles held over the years:

- System Designer – EMAS-R1
- Software Developer – EMAS-R1, ...
- Product Manager – EEM
- Project Leader – EEM Agent
- Manager EEM DCiD

Emerson EnergyMaster™ is a family of monitoring products: from site solutions, embedded controllers, to NOC solutions like EMAS (above). Including Energy Operations Centers around the world.